MOBILE PHONES

The school policy is no mobile phones in school. If your child needs a mobile phone after school, it should be taken to the school office on arrival to be locked away during school hours.

Hedgehogs were excited to meet Indy's stick insects and millipede and enjoyed hearing all about them and asked lots of questions!

Please remember to send children into school with coats and water bottles

STAGE 6 SWIMMING?

The County of Bristol Swimming Club based at Hengrove Leisure Centre are currently looking to take on new members from ages 7/8 years who have completed Stage 6 swimming lessons.

CoB can boast some of the best facilities and coaches in the South West with a 50 metre pool and pathways to suit most swimmers from Academy through to National/International competition

Valley Arts are excited for the start of their 7th Fringe Festival which starts on Saturday 14th October. Now an established highlight of the Chew Valley year, audiences of all ages can look forward to a month-long celebration of live music, theatre, dance and comedy in local venues across the Chew Valley.

There will be lots on offer for our family audience, including plenty of shows and FREE workshops ranging from circus skills, to cheerleading and beatbox, as well as a full day workshop with Harry Potter actor Rohan Gotobed, all about Shakespeare!
