On Tuesday this week, we had an astrophotographer come into Fox Class and talk to us about Space and how amazing the night sky really is.

The person that came to speak to us was called Josh Dury and he is from Compton Martin. His photos blew my mind. He really loves his job and he is so good at it. We had an amazing time.

If you want to see some of his pictures go to his website: <https://www.joshduryphoto-media.com/>
