SPORTS DAY

Another successful Sports Day! The children took part in a variety of activities including javelin, sprint and long distance running, throwing bean bags, egg and spoon, football, long jump and of course the obligatory parent and teacher tug of war! The trophy cup went to Long Eared Owls with a very close runner-up, Tawney Owls. The children were treated with a well deserved ice lolly at the end kindly provided by the PTA. Thank you to everyone for supporting and helping make it a memorable day.

EAST HARP TREE FLOWER AND CRAFT SHOW COMPETITION

Thank you for all your entries into the East Harptree Flower and Craft Show Programme Competition for 2023! We had lots of entries this year and they were all amazing: colourful, well thought through and with lots of energy. This year's theme was Love Local and we really enjoyed seeing everyone's reflections on what that means.

The winners this year are:

1) Luke Ballance. The judge said: A beautiful, neat, vibrant picture with lots of detail about the local area.

2) Aubree Marklew. The judge said: A bright, cheerful picture and an original idea.

3) Annabelle Evans. A lovely design with pretty colours. Excellent colouring.

Congratulations!

Luke's will be featured on the front cover of the programme this year, and Aubree's and Annabelle's will be on the inside cover. Luke will receive a £25 book voucher.

Thanks again to everyone else who entered. Everyone's designs will be put on display at the Flower and Craft Show on 2nd September.
